

Understanding Inequalities:
Multidisciplinary Approaches and Comparative Perspectives

Workshop organized by the Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS & The Institute for Social Sciences (The University of Tokyo)
Tokyo, 11-12 July, 2014

With the support of (alphabetical order):

EHESS, Fondation France-Japon de l'EHESS

Place: Institute of Social Science, The University of Tokyo

Contact and information : Kenji Hirashima (hirashim@iss.u-tokyo.ac.jp), Kae Amo (kae.amo@ehess.fr)

Friday, 11 July

1:30 p.m. Welcome Address by Hiroshi Ishida (Director, ISS) and general introduction by Kenji Hirashima (ISS) and Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS)

Part I: New approaches on inequalities

Chair: Kenji Hirashima (ISS)

2 pm - 2:20 p.m. Akiko Suwa-Eisenmann (PSE, INRA) & Gilles Postel-Vinay (PSE, EHESS):
“The multidimensional aspects of intergenerational transmission of wealth and poverty in the long run: France, 1820-1960” (joint with Jérôme Bourdieu, Lionel Kesztenbaum)

Discussant: Ryo Kambayashi (Hitotsubashi University)

2:30-2:50 p.m. Sandrine Bretonnière (Cadis-EHESS/CNRS): “Inequalities in cancer care: focusing on barriers to compliance during treatments”

Discussant: Chiaki Ishigaki (Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, The University of Tokyo)

3.00 p.m. Coffee Break

3:30-3:50 p.m. Shin Arita (ISS): “A Comparative Analysis of Social Stratification in Japan, Korea and Taiwan”

Discussant: Gilles Postel-Vinay (PSE, EHESS)

4.00-4:20 p.m. Kaku Sechiyama (Graduate School of Arts and Sciences): “Patriarchy in East Asia: A Comparative Sociology of Gender”

Discussant: Sandrine Bretonnière (Cadis-EHESS/CNRS)

4.30-4:50 p.m. Hiroshi Yoshikawa (The University of Tokyo, Faculty of Economics): “Equality and social security in Post war Japan”

Discussant: Sebastien Lechevalier (EHESS)

5.00 p.m. General Discussion

5:30 pm: closing of the first day

6:00 p.m. Reception

Saturday, 12 July

Part II: Labor Inequalities: concepts & issues

Chair: Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS)

09:30 - 09:50 am Bénédicte Zimmermann (Georg Simmel Center, EHESS)

“Inequalities at Work: From Resources to Capabilities”

Discussant: Yuichiro Mizumachi (ISS)

10:00-10: 20 a.m. Bernard Thomann (Inalco): “Another labor inequality: the social invisibility of miner’s occupational diseases”

Discussant: Kazutoshi Kase (ISS)

10:30 a.m. Coffee Break

11: 00-11:20 a.m. Yuichiro Mizumachi (ISS): “Why Are There Many Expendable Workers in Japan? — Issues and Mechanisms Underlying the Non-Regular Worker Problem”

Discussant: Bénédicte Zimmermann (Georg Simmel Center, EHESS)

11:30-11:50 a.m. Ryo Kambayashi (Hitotsubashi University): “Good Jobs, Bad Jobs, and the Great Recession: Lessons from Japan’s Lost Decade” (joint with Takao Kato, Colgate University)

Discussant: Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS)

Noon-00:20 p.m. General discussion

00:20 p.m. -1:20 pm Lunch

Part III: From Opinions to Discourses and Policies

Chair: Bernard Thomann (Inalco)

1:30-1:50 p.m. Caroline Guibet Lafaye (Centre Maurice Halbwachs & GRECO, CNRS): “Rejection and tolerance of inequalities and their new dimensions in France”

Discussant: Shigeki Uno (ISS)

2. p.m.-2:20 p.m. Shigeki Uno (ISS): “The transformation of intellectual discourses on equality/inequality in contemporary Japan”

Discussant: Caroline Guibet Lafaye (Centre Maurice Halbwachs & GRECO, CNRS)

2:30 pm - 2:50 p.m. Sébastien Lechevalier (EHESS & MFJ): “Social mobility, social beliefs, and attitudes to redistribution. A comparison between the United States, France, and Japan”

Discussant: Takeshi Fujitani (ISS)

3. p.m.-3:20 p.m. Takeshi Fujitani (ISS): “The Fate of Redistributive Taxation in the Era of Globalization” (joint with Holger Görg, Kiel Institute)

Discussant: Akiko Suwa-Eisenmann (PSE, INRA)

3.30 p.m. Coffee Break

4. p.m.-4:20 p.m. Kenji Hirashima (ISS): "Nothing new to the unique welfare state? Japan in comparison with France"

Discussant: Bernard Thomann (Inalco)

5. p.m. Discussion

5:30 pm: closing of the workshop

6:00 p.m. Dinner